Annual Philosophy Awards

from the

St. Philip's College

Philosophy Faculty

2025 Teaching Excellence Award

This year we make a special designation as we posthumously recognize Prof. Ann Riordan*, former Professor and Chair of the Department.*

She was the first member of the Philosophy Faculty to receive tenure (1988) and the first to be promoted to the rank of Professor (1994).

2025 Outstanding Student Award

This year we recognize Katya Ruiz*, who has done exceptional academic work in her philosophy courses taught by Dr. Jamie Hardy.*

2025 Fulbright Award

Byron "Ronnie" Miller, Instructor of Sociology, who has served as both a Peace Corps Volunteer in the Orkhon district of the Selenge Province of Mongolia and as a Fulbright Scholar at the National University of Mongolia.

2025 Amicus Award

Becky Rodriguez has been an outstanding backer of the Philosophy Faculty and a constant source of support for our students and their programs.

2025 International Education Award

LaTanya Kurney is the Coordinator for International Relations. She oversees virtual exchanges and facilitates dual degree and international transfer programs with foreign university partners for the Alamo Colleges District. She is also an alternate responsible officer (ARO) for the J-1 Exchange Visitor Program for exchange visitors attending the Colleges through sponsored programs.

The Philosophy Faculty at St. Philip's College

Visit the Philosophy Awards Website

https://www.philosophyawards.com/

The St. Philip's College Philosophy Faculty for AY 2023-2024: Andrew Hill, J.D. (Loyola) (left); Anthony Civhan, Ph.D. (Michigan State), Marie Feldmeier, Ph.D. (Notre Dame), Vladimer Narsia, LL.M. (Cardiff), M.Th. (Tbilisi State), Fulbright Scholar-in-Residence; and Jamie Hardy, Ph.D. (Utah).